THE AMERICAN MINISTER AT RIO.—A letter from Rio Janeiro of the 24th of November, gives the following particulars of the row between the English and American Ministers to the Brazils.
Quite a breeze has been stirred up in this country by a recent difficulty between the English and American Ministers at this Court. The affair in question dates from a diplomatic reception at the house of the Russian Envoy, where it would seem that the English Representative, Christie, so far forgot the proprieties of the occasion as to make use of language derogatory to the honor of our country. He was promptly and sharply rebuked by General Webb, who, in reply to inquiry, declared himself ready to accept a challenge and to give Christie a meeting at sunrise.—He further stated that he would not make the slightest concession before receiving an apology for the language complained of. A shuffling apology was then made, which General Webb accepted, and a supposed reconciliation took place. But it soon appeared that, notwithstanding the reconciliation, Christie was acting with bad faith toward General Webb, and has ordered the attaches of the British Legation to break off their friendly relations with the American Minister. Upon this a correspondence ensued, but was quickly broken off by Christie who after a sharp letter from General Webb, declined to answer it or to take any measures upon the subject.
General Webb now sent copies of the correspondence to all the members of the diplomatic corps, and procured a full indorsement of his own statements from the Russian and Prussian Ministers. The revelations thus made are very damaging to the official and personal character of the English diplomatist, and his conduct is generally condemned, even by the British residents in this city.

THURSDAY MORNING, FEB 19 1863

Military Humbugs

After the success of Barnum s humbug exhibitions, it is not surprising that the American public should be tolerant of humbugs in official stations We laughed while Barnum was cheating us with his wooly horses and venerable negro wenches, and we have manifested the same cynicism while being cheated by civil and military humbugs in these times of trial

It is a superstition of the Americans, shared by pretty much every man in the nation that the Commander-in Chief of the army of the United States is necessarily the greatest general of the age At one time it would have been counted nearly treason to doubt this, and the man who did do it was treated as a fool But sooner or later the idols of popular superstition are thrown down We have had abundant proof that a man may be Commander in Chief without knowing much about commanding, and many good bar-keepers, lager beer saloon waiters and the like, have been spoiled by being made Generals in our armies Many of the last named have strutted their brief hour on the stage of this war and disappeared without any great interest being manifested in their subsequent fate Several "gallant" Generals have been much praised for desperate fighting in a single action, and have retired to soak their laurels in the "ardent" Most of this kind were doubtless cornered into a fight, and prudently determined that their first battle should be their last

Of those who started out in the lead in this war the major part are dead or retired—excepting a few who are drawing salaries for exhibiting their shapes around the large cities, with a brilliant staff of punch-back warriors The valiant leaders on whom a nation's hopes did lean have too many of them fallen, to do honor to the cloth which is disgraced by the hangers on of Generals out of employment Of this class the names of Lyon, Baker, Stevens, Kearney, Bayard, Reno, Oglesby, Jackson, Terril, Hackleman, Wallace and a host of others, are gone to their long account These men constituted a host in themselves, and it is upon their brilliant performances that many a military humbug has founded his claim to wear the stars

If this war is successfully ended it will be by discarding from the service about one half of the Generals in it Every one who has no merit to recommend him, is occupying a place which should be the reward of honor for brave soldiers and officers

It is proper to remark, in this connection, that the claims of West Point have received about all the consideration that is due to that institution, and the war has developed the fact that West Point may improve a naturally capable man, but makes a fool of a small mind. There are some civilians who will become able Brigadiers in one year, and capable of any command in two or three years. On the other hand, there are men who might stay for ever at West Point, and become less useful the longer they remain there To prove that a civilian may prove himself worthy of the highest commands in the time mentioned, we instance Hoche—Hoche whose special qualifications may be judged by a single remark. On one occasion, a foreign officer was hoping that a certain campaign would be carried on with as little blood-shed as possible "Bah!" says Hoche, "you cannot make omelettes without breaking eggs!" Every reader of French history will remember the wonderful exploits of this General, who was not second to Napoleon in any respect, and infinitely his superior in patriotism Hoche rose from the ranks to a generalship in one year His story is full of instances of this nature and all that we need is to look among the patriotic rank-and-file to find officers who are not humbugs.

The Third Time —If Gen McClellan should be called to the command of the armies a third time, some of the "small bore" newspaper Brigadiers will feel very cheap after all they have said against his loyalty to the Union It should go forth as a truth not to be denied that Gen McClellan had no objection to executing the Emancipation Proclamation, and was removed on the impeachment of General Halleck. To the last day of his official connection with the Army of the Potomac, he possessed the sincere friendship of Mr Lincoln, even if he did not have his confidence as a military man If employed at all, it is likely McClellan will take General Halleck's place.

Sherman's Failure —Gen Tecumseh Sherman is loudly censured for his failure at Vicksburg The soldiers declare that he carelessly sacrificed their comrades, without a chance of success. As his name is not mentioned among Gen Grant's Generals it is likely that he has no command in the Army of the Mississippi High hopes were formed of Gen Sherman s career for his conduct at Shiloh and it is with regret that we can arrive at a belief in his incompetency—regret that a career so promising should close so ingloriously

Governor Andrew s message was delivered today It is a very lengthy and comprehensive document The public debt of the State is $5 257 000, the designated provision to meet which is $6,096,000 The disbursements of the past year amounted to $1 083 91 The collections of revenue have been promptly made and the treasury presents a spectacle of prosperity and strength unusually in peace The aggregate number of the troops raised by the State is 60 000 The banking institutions are reported in a sound condition The Governor restates his former suggestion that radical changes in the financial system should be approached with great caution Much space is devoted to educational subjects, and the establishment of a college for instruction in agriculture, the mechanic arts and military tactics All the material interests of the State are represented as prosperous In conclusion, the Governor alludes to the patriotism of the Massachusetts soldiers and citizens and says

Unionists in no double sense, we have held from the beginning that the Government greater than any class of men or of interests, has an original right to the devoted and hearty service of every subject and power We deny the rightfulness of the rebellion, and we are in arms against it, and we have equally denied that the rebel States could be rightfully allowed to impose their treasonable will upon any human being whose interest or desires would make him loyal While our wives surrender their husbands and our fathers their sons to all the perils of dreadful war waged by the rebellion, we have never discovered a reason why the rebels should retain their slaves and compel them to be rebels too Supporting always the Government with but condition as to its policy, we rejoice with unutterable joy that its policy is that of human nature, and not that of human sophistry and we hail the returning day of the civic virtues which our national departure from the practice of justice and the principles of our fathers had discouraged in the North and overthrown in the South

In a few brief years we shall have paid the national debt incurred during the present war by the enlarged value which freedom will have given to the property of the rebel States the increased productive ability of freed men over slaves, and their multiplied power to buy and consume the products of our manufactories and arts The people of America will have saved the Union saved Democratic Republican liberty, both menaced by the same dangers will have perpetuated the Government, magnified the Constitution and made it honorable, and will have crowned a great career of glory with an act of expedient justice unequaled in its grandeur in all the history of mankind

Negro Soldiers again —In addition to the one hundred and fifty thousand negro soldiers to be raised under the authority of Congress Governor Andrew, of Massachusetts, has determined to arm the free negroes of that State Now the question arises Will not the Chivalry catch these dark-skinned "men and brothers" and enslave them? Would not this be vengeance for having to shoot their own slaves? This subject of black soldiers gets brighter instead of darker, the more we look at it If the Confederates will only issue an edict that their soldiers shall own every negro they catch, we may look for an outburst of enthusiasm among the butternuts unequalled in this or any other war

Don t want Them —Jeff Davis contemptuously rejected the peace proposals of Wool, Vallandigham & Co He is not as courteous to them as he is to the Africans for he will condescend to have the blacks for servants but declines to take the offer of the services of Northern doughfaces In this particular Jeff Davis shows more spirit than we had supposed him capable of possessing So it appears that he will not take Peace Democrats as servitors, and the Unionists don t want them, so they are not likely to get a master at all

California Senator —The nomination of John Conness by the California Legislative caucus insures, his election He is a native of New York, the most effective enemy the Chivalry ever had except Broderick on this Coast He is honest capable and active; entirely devoted to the Union, and is a credit to the cause he advocates the State he represents and the Senate itself

Fire at Olympia —On the 12th inst, says the Standard, a fire broke out in the office of Elwood Evans, Secretary of Washington Territory, which was extinguished before any great damage was done The office contained the records of the Territory.

Won't consent to It —Governor Letcher of rebel Virginia, says he will not consent to the division of the Old Dominion He can probably prevent it by coming back into the Union, and merging his rebellious section of the State with loyal Western Virginia, and no other way

Too Dry —The miners in Southern Oregon have suffered very much by the dryness of the present winter A general exodus from that quarter is anticipated Our eastern gold fields offer the inducements which the honest miners are seeking for

The Columbia —The Mountaineer says that the Columbia was closed by ice from Celilo to Wallula, on the 17th inst Since then the weather has moderated and the ice has probably gone out The Col Wright was to leave Celilo for Wallula on the 19th inst

Texas —The government of Texas has made an appeal for volunteers from the militia throughout the State on the requisition of the commanding General for not less than 5 000 men to prevent the further invasion of Texas

Marine Disasters —For the year 1862, the number of marine disasters in the California and Coast trades, amount to 112 of which 41 were total losses and 71 partial The values were $6 018 101 00

New Steamer —The steamer Ranger is to be rebuilt at Steilacoom, and will be used in bringing down produce from the rivers running into Puget Sound

Oregon Cavalry —The Mountaineer says that Maj Logenbeel of the Ninth Infantry Regulars is to be appointed Colonel of the Oregon Cavalry Regiment

Winter —Snow was lying about a foot deep over the Sound district on the 14th inst The late rains have probably taken it off

Fort Sumter said to be in a State! —The New York Sunday Mercury publishes a letter purporting to have been written by an officer of the revenue cutter Bibb giving an account of a secret reconnoitering expedition in Charleston harbor which resulted in the discovery that the rebels have plated the outsides of Fort Sumter with heavy bars of railroad iron This story whether true or not is curious The writer says

It was in the boat got under the shadow of the fort keeping just far enough away to avoid being dashed against it Now with a sufficiently powerful lantern that we had suspended over the side we could see that the wall of the fort was covered in a sort of a coating of railroad iron traversed the same by projecting perpendicularly from the face the spikes The spikes were pretty large massive projections of the same material presenting razor angles at every side This armor would effectually serve to turn the 150 pounders even which the navy eagles presented did not succeed in penetrating and send them spinning from us their fire from us like so many pons The clever Beauregard has evidently not been idle since the evacuation of this port and it is to him that we owe this formidable armament

Mounted Infantry —Governor Morton of Indiana has called upon the Government to supply our Western armies with fifty thousand horses so that our infantry can be mounted with the same rapidity that characterizes the Confederate troops in that quarter The prevalent notion that the Southern guerrilla parties are cavalry is a great mistake They are simply mounted infantry who are carried from place to place on horseback, but who fight on foot

General Grant's Wife —A Memphis paper reports that the wife of General Grant was among the prisoners captured by the rebels at Holly Springs She was released by General Van Dorn

A Fine Gun —Call at CAMPBELL & SHOBTIN GALLERY Front street near Morrison and see the new $200 bowling Piece now on exhibition—a model of elegance simplicity and effective use On the ground it will take them on the wing will find something worth seeing in this gun which is a San Francisco made and a meritorious specimen of the handicraft of the coast

Alsek has received by last steamer a fine lot of WINES LIQUORS and CIGARS

Storage —The Fire Proof Stone Warehouse, opposite Smith s House in the only building not made of wood at the Dalles where goods are taken on STORAGE All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town liable to the risk of fire The subscribers assure his patrons that his charges are but $1 50 per ton per month storage and all goods stored in wooden buildings is $1 00 per ton yet they still cannot fail to perceive the advantages he enjoys over other warehouses of this place

Coughs —The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to Brown s Bronchial Troches or Lozenges for the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat before over-night shall bring this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice See advertisement dec16daw3m

White's Fever and Ague Drops—For the cure of AGUE PANAMA FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success Indeed in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure in Ague cases only one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten

CIRCUIT COURT.—The following is an account of the business transacted in the Circuit Court yesterday.—Judge Shattuck presiding

The jury in the case of Bennett & Quimby vs Patrick Manning brought in a verdict for $391 62.

In the case of F J Northcut vs. the O. S. N Co., the jury is out

The State of Oregon vs Jose Maria Hernandez, trial to morrow morning.

COMMON COUNCIL, met last evening,—present, Messrs. Dennison, Halleck, Holmes, Silvers and Williams Mr. Holmes in the chair Minutes of last meeting read and approved

A petition from the citizens of Portland, praying the abolition of Cheap John stores in this city, was read by the Clerk and the whole subject was referred to the Committee on Health and Police

A petition from Thomas F Skinner to retail liquors at the Miner's Return Saloon, was granted

A petition from Tilman & Vance, asking that a transfer of liquor license of G L Tucker, at Pony Sample Rooms, to themselves be ratified, and asking new license, was granted.

The petition of F W. Bell Foreman of No 4 engine company, asking the use of the Council Room to hold the company meetings in, was granted

A communication from H Wasserman, in relation to the rent of the Common Council Room, was read. It asked the reimbursement of the loss on $140 in Legal Tender Notes, which he had received in the payment of rent. The petition was granted

A petition from Thomas J Holmes, in relation to grades was read

The Committee on Ways and Means reported an Ordinance in relation to licenses The most important feature of this Ordinance is that which makes it obligatory on those who take out licenses to pay for them in gold and silver coin

The amendment to the License Ordinance by the Committee on Ways and Means was adopted as a substitute, and the ordinance was read a second time by sections

After some further unimportant business, the Council adjourned

BUTCHER'S ASSOCIATION.—We are informed that an informal meeting of the Butchers of this city was held last evening at the People's Market, for the purpose of organizing a Butcher's Association, establish prices for the government of the trade, &c Mr R Weeks was called to the chair, and W W Spaulding elected Secretary. A committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs J Bergman, J H Vineland and J. Farrell to draft a constitution and by-laws for the government of said Association, to be submitted at the next meeting, which will be held at the same place on Saturday night, (to morrow) A full attendance of all interested is expected, as a permanent organization will be effected.

FINE.—Schirpser, the Cheap John who was fined the other day, paid his fine and the costs. On the 17th inst he came into the Recorder's Court and made a motion to appeal the case to the Circuit Court, He tendered the necessary sureties, but the Recorder held that the city ordinance under which Schirpser was fined made no provision for an appeal from the Recorder's Court to the Circuit Court, so the motion was denied

TRUST WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE.—Our little evening cotemporary, the Commercial, claims John Conness as a Democrat, and congratulates its readers that he, as a Democrat, is about to be elected Senator from California. Mr. Conness will be elected by a Legislature which has not ten opposers of Mr Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation in it and it is likely that he is not opposed to it or he would not be elected We mention this because we fear lest Mr. Conness will grieve very much at the position assigned him by our city cotemporary. We have noticed on the part of the Commercial a disposition to claim every body for democrats and everything as democratic. So far has it carried this innocent, but irrepressible mania, that it has treated the OREGONIAN as a brother of the true democratic faith. We look on this as a kind of hopeful if harmless that is not likely to hurt any body, but one which illustrates the weak point in that paper If its converts to democracy are half as numerous as it claims, the Union ists had better resign. We must protest, however, against its appropriation of John Conness, which looks like a political larceny of the grandest kind, and one which he would not like if he knew it No doubt the Commercial will mend its ways in this matter, for it is now exhibiting great zeal with but little knowledge

WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY AT BELPASSI.—The interesting exercises of the great celebration of the birth-day of Washington at Belpassi, Marion county, will commence at the church and school house building of that place, about 10½ o'clock on Saturday next, the 21st inst. when his excellency Governor Gibbs will deliver an oration, and the patriotic exercises will continue according to the programme, until 3 o clock, P M After which time, there will be a recess until 6 o'clock P M, when the exercises will be resumed and continue until 10 or 11 o clock, P M during which time the sterling patriot Samuel Brown, Esq, of Belpassi, will debate the President's Emancipation Proclamation, and various speeches will be delivered by other gentlemen upon the occasion A choir of the most delightfully melodious vocalists, as well as an excellent brass band, will discourse music appropriate to the day and the exercises will be of a nature both entertaining as well as instructive to the numerous good citizens who will unite in the commemoration of the birth day of the immortal founder of our Nation, who was first in peace, first in war, and first in the hearts of his countrymen

RESIGNED.—Charles White, Esq, has resigned his office as Sheriff of Wasco county He had held the place three years with general acceptation

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?—Orpheus C Kerr fixes the responsibility for the Fredericksburg disaster in the following letter

Though the Mackerel Brigade is still very enthusiastic my boy to be left unpedred ly into the fiery bosom of the well known Southern Confederacy again and although the new General of the Mackerel Brigade has grievously avowed that he himself was the person who lost the very battle in which he was personally defeated I still feel that the late return of the spectacled Napoleon of Duck Lake was somewhat mortifying to our distracted country and united with Monday with excellent the Democratic Organization in demanding that the Responsible wretch should be immediately declared an accursed Abolitionist On Monday afternoon I was talking with the Conservative Kentucky chap and the melancholy Chicago chap on the subject and says the Kentucky chap

The constitutional organization of our forefathers, of which I am a member, is much devoted to the Union and the pursuit of happiness, but we object to the loss of any battles whatsoever by the present imbecile Administration, and shall proceed immediately to demand who is responsible for the General's holding himself accountable for the recent reverse to our arms 'The whole land, says the conservative Kentucky chap, hotly, "the whole land, and especially Kentucky, must respectfully asks in tones of thunder 'Who is responsible?'"

Here the melancholy chap drew a crumpled piece of paper from his pocket book, and says he

'I have taken the trouble to examine into this matter, and upon this paper you will find a full revelation of the guilty party

Having first taken a lozenge for his cold, which he rightly attributed to Horace Greeley, the Conservative chap read as follows

THE BLUNDERER REVEALED

"Who is Responsible? the nation cries,
When fell disasters everywhere arise
And slaughtered legions strew the plain where died
A gallant Bayard and his country's pride

"Who is Responsible? The question rises
Loud through the noise of rout and rallying drums
All the wide land is reeling from a blow
Dealt, through our blunder by a ready foe

"Who is Responsible? Ten thousand dead
Rest not in quiet 'till the answer's said
Speak ye the secret whisper it who can?
Give to the nation a lips Thou art the man!

"Who is Responsible? The trickster he re,
Yet none more ready with delighted cheers
Look to the statesman in his seat, he says,
"He is the leader, or for blame or praise"

"Who is Responsible?" still rings the cry
Growling the fiercer with the answering lie
Still through the country's length and breadth it peals
Hungry for truth while yet no truth reveals

"Who is Responsible?" The General true,
Losing through doing all that man could do
Bending his back to take the weight of blame,
Shoulders the guilt and finds it turn to fame

"Who is Responsible?" Unanswered still,
Each feels the question a agonizing thrill.
Another army in defeat is lost
And Justice seeks the blunderer with the cost

"Who is Responsible? If not the men
Who sway the nation with the statesman's pen
If not the General—for though he confessed
All his conceptions proved he did his best?

"Who is Responsible?" Exonerate
The men of Armies and the men of State
From crimination and there still remains
Unrated doubt, the more that naught explains

"Who is Responsible?" There is a Power
That human wisdom in its wisest hour,
Though working deftly and with deepest skill,
Cannot constrain to serve the human will

"Who is Responsible?" Go ask the dead
What brought him to the undirected lead?
Go ask of him who next that victim stood
What made him live when poured the other's blood?

"Who is Responsible? Unthinking land
There is a higher than your highest hand
Go press your question still with threat ning rod
And find your culprit in Almighty God

When the Conservative Kentucky chap had finished reading this document, my boy, he looked sternly at the melancholy chap, and says he

"Then you think Providence is responsible?"

"Yes," says the melancholy chap

"Then," says he, "I shall at once telegraph to Kentucky to go to church no longer Kentucky," says the Conservative chap, convincingly, "can have nothing to do with responsible parties"

And he left us, my boy, to take immediate measures for suppressing all mention of Providence in the canvass for President of the United States in 1865

DICKEY'S CAVALRY RAID.—About Christmas time, Col Dickey, a Western cavalry officer, made a forced march into East Tennessee and Western Virginia, and tore up the Cumberland Gap railway. No full account of his operations has been published by the Union press, we copy a rebel account of his operations, taken from the Lynchburg Republican

The enemy advanced within six miles of Bristol, the terminus of the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad, but retired without coming to the place They afterwards advanced toward Jonesboro' and burned the bridge across the Watauga At this place a small scouting party of citizens, hastily gotten together came up with them and a brisk skirmish occurred, in which one of the enemy was killed, and two captured who were brought into Bristol. They belong to a Pennsylvania regiment, and, we learn, reported their forces at five thousand The enemy first entered Virginia, between Cumberland Gap and Pound Gap, and passing through Estilville, in Scott county, to Blountville, fulfilled their mission of bridge burning, and made a demonstration as if it was their intention to visit Bristol This, as before stated, they failed to do, fearing, doubtless, to venture so far They continued in the direction of Jonesboro', but it is stated by our scouts who came into Bristol, that they were retreating over nearly the same route they advanced. The distance from the point at which they entered the State line to Jonesboro' is between ninety and one hundred miles, and the raid is certainly a most daring one, and argues an audacity in the enemy which they were not supposed to possess They are reported to have been piloted by a militia Colonel of Washington county, Tennessee, by the name of Ward, who left his home and met them in the mountains The damage to the road is serious, as beside burning the bridges named, the track is torn up in many places, and the sills and iron burned The distance between the Watauga and Holston rivers is nine miles, and the burning of the bridges across these streams involves a loss of that distance in our railroad communications. It will take several weeks to repair the damages, and they come at a time when the road is taxed to its utmost capacity But few of the citizens along their march were molested by the Yankees nor have we heard of that destruction of private property usual in their raids,

GOVERNOR MORGAN.—The Albany Argus is not lavish of tributes to political opponents, but we find in its issue of January 1st the following

We know that we express the sentiments of every citizen of Albany when we say that Governor Morgan carries into retirement their best wishes He has with great fidelity fulfilled the duties of his high office and has by his labors, in forwarding the contingent of New York to the Federal armies, magnified our great and noble State Every citizen of New York must recognize her services in this particular

Proclamation by the Governor

EXECUTIVE OFFICE PORTLAND OREGON
January 6 1863

By the President of the United States through Brigadier General George Wright commanding the Department of the Pacific and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry, Oregon Volunteers They will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory, and for an expedition against the Snake Indians who have so long been mercilessly engaged in murdering emigrants and murdering unfellow citizens I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services will in like manner respond to this call thereby showing their loyalty to the Government and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers

The enlisted men when mounted will be supplied with horses by the United States it being understood that they will be mounted or not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government

Propositions to raise a whole company which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments, may be entertained The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged.

Recruiting officers will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City and perhaps at other places By the Governor,

ADDISON C GIBBS
